Thompson, who was committed to fall by Commissioner Bundy as a fugitive from justice in Tennessee on May 4, Justice Montgomery in the criminal cours yesterday or dered the discharge of the prisoner. Thompson was indicted in May, 1880, in Tennessee, for violating the pension inws by withholding $1,000 pension money belonging to his ward. He was arrested the same day, tried, and convicted, but sentence was never pronounced and be was released on $3,000 ball. The case slumbered until about 1st of May last when Thompson was arrested as a fugility from mattice and taken before Commissioner Bundy, who committed him to jall. Mr. Jeff Chandler was at once retained as his counsel and the decision of Justice Montgomery was the result of this efforts.

Hardly had Mr. Thompson been discharged and left the court house before he was resurrested. This time his surety, Gen. W. J. Smith, caused the arrest through a friend. Mr. Chandler was summoned again, and after a consultation with his client, had him swear at a petition for a writ of haboas corpus, setting forth that he was illegally restrained of his liberty, &c. The petition was taken before Chief Justice Hingham, who granted the writ and made it returnable on Saturday morning next at 10 q-clock. Mr. Thompson asys that this is the fourth arrest that he has submitted to in this case, and claims that it is in violation of the constitution and of his rights, and it is for the purpose of carrying him to Tennessee.

Runaway Virginia Couple Married. A yosthful looking country couple entering the clerk's office yesterday, accompanied by two detectives and two or three reporters, served to attract a crowd there. It was thought to be a runaway match, and this turned out to be so, and the presence of the langers on was simply out of curlosity. The couple gave their names as John Beavis and Mary Bagy, of Mount Vernon, Va., secured, their license, and accompanied by their retime started to look for a minister. On their way it is said that the groom acknowledged to be but 19 years of age and the bride 18, but they were warned that they could not get married unless they were of age. So, in answer to Dr. Sunderland's questions, they said they were 21 years old each, and he married them.

FINE SHOES.

DALTON & STRICKLAND,

Particular People VERS&POND A London tailor's dictum was that he could take a meal sack and make a suit of clothes worthy of a gentleman's wearing if the fit was right. Gentlemen have fancies in dressing. One goes for something showy, another expressly calls for a special weave, and so on. But the particular points of a suit are fit and style. Material and make may be ever so good, but condemnation will be swift if there be failure in fit and style. In these two points our stock of suits for business and every-day wear fulfills the highest ideals of dress, with due attention given to propriety of fabrics and perfectness of making, and, above all, with the wit of the clothier—his handiwork shining at its brightest, in the tone of fashion reigning in them, impalpably, distinctly stamping them as stylish and faultless in fit. We extol these less highly than a gentleman would in examining them. They are ready made, and at prices of ready made. You'll be likely to think them above
